

PROLIFE FACTS

Yona Metzger and Shlomo Amar, the chief rabbis in Israel sent a letter in December to all other rabbis exhorting them to fight the “abortion epidemic” they say is “ravaging the country”. They cited a portion of the Torah from Exodus that relates the story of Hebrew midwives refusing an edict from Pharaoh to drown newborn children by throwing them in the Nile.

The rabbis called on religious teachers to inform Israelis of the “biblical prohibition against killing foetuses in their mothers’ wombs.”

In 2009, Metzger and Amar said that the 50,000 babies killed annually, delays the coming of the Messiah and they promised to do more to promote pro-life and pregnancy help efforts.

In 2008, the Union of Orthodox Rabbis of the USA and Canada, issued a historic declaration on voting and abortion. It said Jewish voters should not vote for candidates who support abortion, calling them “antithetical” to Jewish values.
