

PROLIFE FACTS

The forthcoming national elections on Saturday, 26th November, provide the opportunity for Christians to elect Members of Parliament who hopefully will promote pro-life and pro-family policies.

Fortunately, Bob McCoskrie, the national director of Family First NZ, has published a comprehensive voting guide which he is making freely available.

You can request a copy by post, or download it from their website:

www.valueyourvote.org.nz

This brochure entitled Value Your Vote: Election 2011, allows you to see how your local MP and each political party have voted on important social issues over the past years. If we as Christians want to see Parliament promoting pro-life and pro-family legislation, there needs to be a majority of MPs who will vote for those policies. That hasn't been the case in the past. It can make the difference if Christians are willing to make "respect for life" a priority when selecting a candidate to vote for. This is an important opportunity that we Christian voters have to take action on what we believe.
